New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

WOMEN'S NEW EASTER DRESS ACCESSORIES TO GIVE DISTINCTION TO THE CORRECT COSTUME

A Few Suggestions From Our Complete Main Floor Sections.

New Rolling Collars, made of pique cotton crepe, embroidered in colored flowers and some with a finished end of ribbon, 50c to $1.50. New Soft Short Standing Lace Collars for coats, in white and cream, 75c and $1.00. New Vests of organdie, some plain, others with lace trimming, 50c to $3.50. New Marine Ruffs, with standing ruffle of taffeta in back; all the new plain and fancy shades, $2.50 each.

The New Girdles—From the simplest satin effects, with bow in front to the huge minaret girdle, with one and two large ruffles. These are priced at $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, and $4.25 each.

Others like the Argentine Girdle follow the vogue of the South American country from which it derives its name, shown in striking combinations of tango and black. American beauty and black, blue and black, and green and black, at $1.00 each.

Roman Striped Silk Girdles, with large butterfly bow in front, at $1.00 and $3.00 each.

The Beaded Necklace is a most important part of present-day dress. Sometimes two or three are worn at a time, many of them all of one shade, others in which combinations are attractively displayed. Our showing is especially large, amber and lapis, amber and jet, amber and sapphire, amber and jade, amber and turquoise—priced from $1.00 to $4.00 each. Bead Necklaces are also shown in plain colors of coral at 75c each—amber, coral, jet, pearl, rose, violet, pink, and light blue. 50c, $1.00, $1.50, and $2.50 each.

New Tango Chains—The season's latest fad, made of a tiny fold of satin or velvet ribbon, combined with beads of all shapes and sizes. Many have ends finished with fancy beads; others with silk tassels. Shown in many colors and black. 50c to $1.75 each.

MISS JANET RICHARDS DISCUSSES TOLLS AND HOME RULE QUESTIONS BEFORE BIG AUDIENCE

Current Events Speaker Will Discuss Mexican Affairs Next Week at Woodward & Lothrop's.

The usual large and attentive audience assembled in the new Auditorium at Woodward & Lothrop's yesterday morning to hear Miss Janet Richards' weekly discussion of "Public Questions." Beginning with what she called "the present parliamentary crises of the two English-speaking nations—the conflict over the repeal of the exemption clause in our country, and the home rule army crisis in England"—Miss Richards gave a detailed and impartial account of the canal controversy from the date of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty in 1850 to the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty of 1901 to the present political conflict in Congress over the President's reversal of Democratic policy concerning "free tolls."

Alluding to the almost fatal faculty of the Democratic party for internal dissension and division, Miss Richards quoted from a recent editorial in a Democratic paper, which warned the party "if it kept on its senseless policy of division there would soon be no cartoon large enough to give sufficient space for the length of the donkey's ears."

That the subject greatly interested the audience was evidenced by the number of questions asked from the floor and readily answered by Miss Richards. Rel-

FEMINISM THREATENS HOME, SHE DECLARES

Views of Suffragist Denounced as Dangerous by Mrs. O. D. Oliphant at "Anti" Headquarters.

WOMAN NOT GOOD POLITICIAN

"Feminism is a threat against and an attack upon the American home, and the home is the basis of the state. If the suffragists and their leaders understand the whole feminist movement and endorse the same, as they do, they are a menace to the nation. I prefer to believe, however, that they don't know what they are doing."

This statement was made in a lecture delivered by Mrs. O. D. Oliphant, of Trenton, N. J., at anti-suffrage headquarters yesterday afternoon before a large audience, the subject of the discourse being "Feminism, Socialism, and Socialism." Mrs. Oliphant presided in the absence of Mrs. Gardner, the president of the association, who is ill.

"We do not believe," continued Mrs. Oliphant, who is well known in this city as the daughter of Gen. Drum, "that life is hemmed in between four walls, as the suffragists try to make us believe. The woman should engage in all sorts of moral uplift work, in the betterment of conditions in all walks of life, but we do not believe that woman's contribution to the state is just as important to the state as man's. One of her chief duties is the formation of the character of future generations to secure the government."

Referring to the claim of certain suffragists that the question of sex is not to be considered, Mrs. Oliphant said: "Their desire to take up man's work shows that their contribution to the state is not as important as man's. In that they are wrong. Woman's contribution to the state is just as important to the state as man's. One of her chief duties is the formation of the character of future generations to secure the government."

Speaking of the doctrine of feminism, which has received the endorsement of suffrage leaders, Mrs. Oliphant said: "Feminism is a threat against and an attack upon the American home, and the home is the basis of the state. If the suffragists and their leaders understand the whole feminist movement and endorse the same, as they do, they are a menace to the nation. I prefer to believe, however, that they don't know what they are doing."

In a book issued by the National Association for Woman Suffrage on "Votes for Women," Mrs. Oliphant read the titles of various books on the question, the authors of which urge suffrage readers to endorse the doctrines of Socialism and feminism.

HEAR DR. BENJAMIN.

Scientist Reads Paper on Henry Hudson Before Colonial Dances.

Dr. Marcus Benjamin, of the National Museum, read an interesting paper on Henry Hudson before the Club of Colonial Dances at Sixteenth and K streets yesterday afternoon. It was the same paper he wrote for the Sons of Colonial Wars and read in New York several years ago, and of which many clubwomen listened to it with rapt attention.

After this feature Mrs. Lockwood, of Georgetown, sang several songs. Tea and refreshments were served by the direction of the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Mary Sherman McCallum entertained at a dinner for young people last night for her daughter and son, Miss Cecelia McCallum and Mr. John Sherman McCallum, at her residence in R street. Boernstein's Orchestra played for the dancing, and a seated supper was served later in the evening, after which dancing was resumed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollister Chapman entertained at a dinner last night at their residence in G street, in honor of the Chief Justice of Canada and Lady Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. and Mrs. William J. Pettus gave a dinner-dance last night at their residence in Connecticut avenue.

Miss Mary Morris Ambler and Miss Jennie Gibb have sent out cards to the dancers at the Washington Club on April 15, from 5 until 7 o'clock.

Navy circles in Washington were much interested in the announcement yesterday of the engagement of Miss Louise Culbertson Lawton and Ensign Oliver W. Farby, U. S. N. The engagement was announced at luncheon given by Mrs. John Ford Hines, wife of Commodore Hines, U. S. N., at their quarters in Annapolis, Md.

Ensign Farby graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1912 and is on duty on the U. S. S. New Hampshire. The luncheon guests included Miss Horsey Williams, Miss Mary Welch, Miss Anita Crawford, Miss Nelson, Miss Louise Day, Miss Louise Lawton, Miss Frances Lawton, Miss Agnes Hall and Miss Elvira Johnston.

The Ambassador of Austria-Hungary and Mme. Dumba, who spent the past few days at Aiken, S. C., returned to Washington yesterday. Mme. Dumba will leave Washington shortly for Austria.

Mrs. Carl Kaufman, of St. Gall, Switzerland, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Goldenberg, at her residence, 2315 Twenty-seventh street, northwest, will be at home Thursday afternoon, from three until six o'clock.

Mrs. Eudora B. Haden entertained at luncheon at her last in company with Miss Mary Beall Ewing, of Yonkers, N. Y. Miss Ewing and Mrs. Haden were schoolgirls together.

Navy Yard Tea-Dance

The tea-dance at the Navy Yard yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Navy Relief Society was one of the gayest of the season. The hall was decorated for the occasion, and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, assisted by the members of the committee in charge of the dances, received the hundreds and more guests. Refreshments were served by the afternoon, and the Navy Yard band played for the dancing.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Freeman Walsh, of St. Paul, Minn., are guests at the Hotel Powhatan.

Mrs. Frank Clark Cosby, of Brookline, Mass., and her son, C. Cosby, Jr., will arrive in Washington on Saturday to spend Easter with Mrs. Frank Carvill Cosby at her apartment at Stoneleigh Court. Mrs. Cosby will be entertained by Miss Mollie Elliot Seawell during her visit.

Mrs. James H. Elliott, of Winnipeg, and Mrs. C. G. Curtis, of Detroit, have taken an apartment at the Hotel Powhatan.

Under the auspices of the Round Table Club of the Young Women's Christian Association, a concert for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. will be given on Tuesday evening, March 30, at 8:30 in the assembly room of the Y. M. C. A., 1736 G street.

IRISH WRITER BECOMES FAMOUS

But She Dies in London from Longing to Go Back to Erin.

Thirty years does not seem long to live and die in a short time in which to gain immortality, but Mrs. Charles Arlington Barnard, who under the name of "Claribel," composed seven "Songs That Never Grow Old" wrote her name large across the hearts of every one who loves the shamrock and springtime, its music and its mirth.

Possibly you recall her "Come Back to Erin," one of the sweetest songs ever written, or her "We'd Better Bide a Wee," or "Strangers Yet," or "You and I," or "Take Back the Heart Thou Gavest Me," or "Drifting," or "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs"—there is a heart throbbing in every line of all of them. They are the "Songs That Never Grow Old." Read the display announcement in another column today and the distribution plan as printed on the coupon and arrange to get the songs of "Claribel" along with all the other dear old favorites. Clip the coupon today.
